

WINE LIST

Sparkling	125ml	Bottle
Ermellini Prosecco Spumante, Delicious, off-dry with a persistent mousse	£ 6	£ 29
Miss Molly Petit Rose Pinot Noir & Chardonnay made in the Champagne method to deliver a fresher, easy drinking style	£7	£ 36
Deville Brut Champagne, Verzy, France Wonderful character and charm that puts many more famous names in the region to shame		£ 55
Nyetimber Blanc de Blancs, 2010, England Nyetimber garnered international recognition when it was blind tasted against Champagnes and later judged (by French judges no less) to be the best in tasting!		£ 70
White	175ml	250ml
El Sapiro, Sauvignon Blanc, 2017, Chile A light lemon colour with a playful perfume of zesty citrus	£ 5.25	£ 7
Calusari, Pinot Grigio, 2017, Romania This expression of Pinot Grigio is far superior to any Italian at this price	£ 6	£ 8
Basa, Verdejo, 2017, Spain Crisp minerals, the world famous El Bulli's house offering	£ 6.75	£ 9
The Mayfly, Sauvignon Blanc, 2017, Marlborough, NZ Lashings of tropical fruit, dominated by a defining gooseberry character	£ 7.50	£ 10
Miss Molly, Chardonnay, 2014, Franschoek, SA Made OZ Clarke's top 3 out of 150+ wines at the Dorset Wine Festival, what more do you need to know?!	£7.50	£ 10
Villa des Croix, Viognier, 2017, France A joyous Viognier exhibiting floral notes of elderflower & honey blossom		£30
H&B Piquepoul-Roussanne, 2017, Languedoc, France Fresh, clean & crisp Piquepaul with a splash of Roussanne for depth & character		£36
La Fornace, Gavi di Gavi, Cortese, 2016, Piedmont, Italy Gavi is often described as the Chablis of Italy - Gavi de Gavi denoting the highest quality classification produced		£ 36
Dufouleux Chablis 1er Cru, 2015, France A bracing acidity underpins the elegant minerality owing to the Kimmerdigian clay soils from which the vines stem		£ 49
Patrick Miolane, Chassagne-Montrachet, 2015, France Expertly crafted Chardonnay from one of the most famous villages in Burgundy. Rich and opulent owing to the quality of fruit grown in the La Caniere vineyard		£ 60

Rose	175ml	250ml	Bottle
SO Vignerons, Grenache Cinsault, 2017, France Fresh, fruity Mediterranean rose – great bang for your buck!	£ 6	£ 8	£ 24
Hecht & Bannier, Cotes de Provence, 2017, France Robert Parker describes this wine as “A plump, medium-bodied effort, marked by crisp, citrusy fruit with a zippy, refreshing finish” – it also Received a Silver Medal in Decanter’s World Wine Awards	£ 9	£ 12	£ 36
Red	175ml	250ml	Bottle
El Satiro, Merlot, 2017, Chile Medley of soft summer fruits to tease and tantalise the taste buds	£ 5.25	£ 7	£ 21
Calusari, Pinot Noir, 2017, Romania A supreme Pinot Noir that offers more than its price would suggest	£ 6	£ 8	£ 24
Noel Saint Laurent Cotes du Rhone, 2015 Well balanced with plenty of garrigue herb character so typical of the Rhone Valley, gentle floral compliment of violets and rose petal	£6.75	£9	£27
Manzanos, Rioja, 2017, Spain Intense cherry red, ripe black & red fruits with bags of character	£ 6.75	£ 9	£ 27
Finca La Linda, Malbec, 2016, Argentina Produced by Luigi Bosca who has been influential in preserving the Integrity of Argentinian Malbec by introducing DOC regulations akin to those in Italy. His wines are only made from fruit grown, vented and bottled on his estate	£ 7.50	£ 10	£ 30
Miss Molly, Cab/Merlot, 2013, South Africa Rich dark fruits, unashamedly new-world but with a firm nod to Bordeaux			£ 33
Dufouler, Fleurie, Beaujolais, 2015, France A very pure expression of Gamay from the Cru Beaujolais village of Fleurie. A ripe and rounded alternative to Pinot Noir			£ 35
Lealtanza, Rioja Reserva, 2011, Spain Well-rounded flavours accentuated by excellent use of Oak			£44
Lacroix Bordeaux Superior, 2015, France Ruby coloured soft, fruity with light oak			£51
Fernando Principiano, Barolo di Serralunga DOCG, 2014, Piedmont, Italy Produced from Nebbiolo sourced from the tiny 3-hectare plot from commune of Serralunga. The fruit is fermented using only its natural yeasts to deliver notes of bright red cherries, violets, cinnamon & nutmeg			£ 57
Chateau Musar, 2006, Beka’a Valley Lebanon Chateau Musar is an icon in the wine world. Comprising Cabernet Sauvignon, Carignan and Cinsault, the final blend is the perfect balance of one third each			£ 60